

Lincoln Tech Chassis Maintenance Assessment FAQ

Note: You only achieve total course completion by passing each section with a minimum of 70%.

1. What should I do when starting the Assessment?

A. Review each corresponding section in The IANA Guide to Chassis Inspection and Repair manual before taking the assessment.

Example of section. Click on arrow(s) to expand section content.

2. How many sections are in the assessment?

A. There are 9 sections in the assessment, each corresponding with the 9 sections of The IANA Guide to Chassis Inspection and Repair.

3. What are the names of sections in the assessment, and how many questions per section?

- Section 100 - General Procedures and Auxillary Equipment. (25 Qs)
- Section 200 - Electrical and Lamps (20 Qs)
- Section 300 - Tires and Wheels (20 Qs)
- Section 400 - Axles (15 Qs)
- Section 500 - Couplers and Hitches (10 Qs)
- Section 600 - Frames (45 Qs)
- Section 700 - Suspensions (40 Qs)
- Section 800 - Brakes (60 Qs)
- Section 900 - Welding/Fabrication (30 Qs)

4. Do I need to start over if I take a break during the test?

A. No, the system saves your last selected answer.

5. Should I review the book (The IANA Guide to Chassis Inspection and Repair) before taking the course?

A. Yes, It is strongly recommended you review each section of this book before taking the course sections.